

ALPINE OFFICIALS CLINIC – MONDAY JAN 1, 2018

On behalf of IMD, Rowmark will host an Alpine Officials Clinic on Monday Jan 1, 2018. USSA AOs who are certified as Technical Delegate, Referee, Jury Advisor, Chief of Race, and Chief of Course, Timing & Calculations & Race Administrators are required to attend Continuing Education Clinics every two years. This clinic will specialist in preparing coaches who are interested in serving at Referees.

If you are new to officiating and plan on attending this clinic for training and testing in a specialty area, you will need to complete the online Competition Official course. Go to: <http://www.ussa-imd.org/alpine101/> to download the training material and test. To get credit for completing the online CO course, sign the completed test and email to IMD AO Chair Steve Schowengerdt at gerdt@ussa-imd.org. Please do this as soon as possible so we are notified that you have passed and can continue your AO education at the January 1st clinic.

A Reminder that for all US Ski and Snowboard-SANCTIONED EVENTS: Jury members, Jury Advisors (Start & Finish Referees), Chief of Course, and Course Setters are required to be current members of US Ski and Snowboard as a Coach or Official. To renew your membership or to join US Ski And Snowboard go to <http://ussa.org>

Information Resources & Materials to Bring

- 17-18 Study Guides For specialty area course materials go to: <http://alpine.usskiteam.com/alpine-programs/officials/resources> Valuable information on each specialty area.
- 17-18 Alpine Comp Guide which includes the Alpine Competition Regulations (ACR). Download the 17-18 Comp Guide at: <http://alpine.usskiteam.com/alpine-programs/athletes/rules>.
- Pencil or pen and notepaper.

Alpine Officials Clinic

When: Monday – January 1st – 5:00pm

Who: IMD Coaches

What: Annual Update and Referee Testing
This clinic is focused on preparing coaches who serve as referees.

Where: Rowland Hall
843 Lincoln St
SLC UT 84102

Room: Faculty Lounge

Park in the Student or Faculty lot. Do not park on Lincoln St.
Use the main entrance on the West Side
Faculty Lounge is half way down the hall to the South and on the left hand side.

Registration: Due by December 28th.
Email Troy Price at troyprice@rowmark.org

Cost: $10 cash

What to bring: USSA ACR Book
Paper and pencil

Schedule: 5:00 – 5:15 – Introductions
5:15 – 6:00 – Update and Review
6:00 – 7:00 – Referee PowerPoint
7:00 – 7:15 – Break
7:15 – 7:30 – Test Review
7:30 – 10:00 – Referee Testing

Instructor(s): Troy Price