- I. Reports – Review of 2017-2018:
 - A. Intermountain Financials reviewed by Jessica Hogg / Julia Ward
 - Total Income: $11,407.17
 - Net Income: $7,127.12
 - B. Report out of '17-'18 Events – Karen Homa reported on all IMF events and reviewed considerations:
 - No two events on the same day at different locations (difficult to staff)
 - Collaborate with other divisions to coordinate 18-19 schedule to benefit athletes/event hosts, allowing IMF teams to support IMF events
 - Data analysis to be conducted by Karen regarding some IMF athletes obtaining more points outside division. (Judge bias/ point spread)
 - Consider holding less events to have more training time (as recommended by Ski Congress)
 - Safe sport training every 2 years for coaches, officials and volunteers
 - TD event report due within a week after event, send to IMF Chair and Officials Chair
 - Lake Placid Judges Clinic A, October 11-14 '18
- II. Old Business
 - A. IMF Trailer – Review of Inventory List, all in agreement not to split the trailer and continue to manage it via teams/ chair
 - B. IMF Bibs – 250 bibs needed, will be seeking sponsors
 - Other areas for sponsorship – tents, trailer, control panels
- III. New Business
 - A. Review of Board positions
 - Decision made to move from Co-chairs to Single Chairperson – Jessica Hogg nominated and elected Chairperson
